Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Dear Sir/Madam

I can confirm that Norfolk Constabulary has been consulted on the application for a new premises licence for Last Pub Standing 27-29 King Street Norwich.

This application is to reinstate the licence due to the previous licence being lapsed. The hours and activities requested reflect what was already in place.

To promote the licensing objectives, I request that the following conditions are added to the premises licence:

- CCTV to be in operation whilst the premises is open for licensable activity and CCTV footage to record for a minimum of 28 days and be available to Police or Licensing Authority on request.
- All entry and exit points of the premises will be covered by CCTV enabling frontal identification of persons entering.
- Patrons will be discouraged from taking open vessels of alcohol off the premises.

With these conditions added, there are no Police objections.

Yours faithfully,

Michelle Bartram
Licensing Officer

Subject: RE: New premises licence application - Last Pub Standing

Good Morning Maxine,

In light of the ongoing noise complaints I will have to raise an objection to this licence under the prevention of public nuisance.

In the past 4 months, Environmental Protection have received 2 noise complaints regarding Last Pub Standing (one of which is still live) and spoken to pub management on late night visits on two occasions where the music outside was deemed to be excessively loud.

I also have concerns given the lack of compliance with the previous premises licence. Mr Peters was visited by myself and Peter on the afternoon of Thursday 9th November where it was explained clearly that the previous licence was no longer valid and they were no longer able to trade. Advice was given that TEN's would need to be submitted to try and cover the period between 9th November and when a new licence is granted so they would be able to trade for at least some of the time. I believe this instruction was clearly understood by Mr Peters as TEN's have now been received. I was then disappointed to see that Last Pub Standing had decided to continue to trade after our visit despite knowing that they did not hold a valid licence.

Whilst I am happy to have discussions with Mr Peters over conditions surrounding live/recorded music in the venue, I would still have concerns over whether he would indeed comply with any conditions imposed.

Kind Regards

Good Afternoon,

Regarding the above premises application, we are going to have to object on the grounds of prevention of public nuisance.

Prior to the original licence being discovered as lapsed, we had received 2 complaints of excessive noise from the pub garden in a 4 month period.

A Noise Abatement Notice has also been issued to the proposed licence holder and the current proposed conditions could allow them to breach this notice.

To whomever this may concern,

I am a resident living in Greyfriars Road, the building behind the Last Pub Standing and I have lived here for over a year.

I would like to share with you my experience of living behind this establishment. Ever since my partner and I moved to this building in August 2022, we have been constantly disturbed by the extremely loud music played by the Last Pub Standing. The windows in our flat vibrate when have their events and play music in their garden. This is a residential area, this pub has a residential building both in front as well as directly behind it. There are families with young, small children who go to school. Myself personally, as a working adult, have found it extremely challenging and I have truly struggled to sleep the weekdays the pub plays their ungodly loud music, as well as during the weekends, when one is meant to unwind and manage to relax. It has caused my partner and I severe stress and anxiety, not to mention the quality of our lives has been significantly impacted and decreased due to lack of sleep and rest. It has also impacted my physical health due to the fact I am not getting enough sleep and rest, my immune system has taken a hit and this has been a contributing factor in my health declining during this past year and a bit since moving into this building.

My partner and I have a young 2 year old child. The Last Pub Standing has been playing and wants to continue playing music until 12am on Fridays and 1am on Saturdays, according to their previous schedule and their new licence application. To have a 2 year old child try to fall sleep to extremely loud music and disturbance is challenging and difficult for the child, and she displayed extreme discomfort and anxiety in being unable to go to sleep at her usual bedtime, which is around 7-8pm. This causes my partner and I high stress and anxiety, too. These are formative years of a child's life, and this obnoxiously loud music played carelessly by the Last Pub Standing poses a real threat and danger to our child's normal development, both physically and cognitively. I am sure my partner and I are not the only parents who struggle with this issue. I see lots of young children with their parents in our building every day, and I am sure their lives are just as negatively impacted by the careless actions of the Last Pub Standing.

The Last Pub Standing was operating without a licence, which only suggests they do not care much for the community surrounding their establishment nor our wellbeing and are simply concerned with continuing in their way for their own benefits.

I have made complaints to the council which have lead to noise monitoring equipment being installed. These recordings and monitoring of the extremely loud music and noise coming from the Last Pub Standing have been so significant that the city council has deemed it as statutory nuisance and decided to serve the Last Pub Standing with an abatement notice. I very strongly object for the Last Pub Standing's licence application to be approved as it is harmful to our community and I would be most grateful if my objections in this email would be carefully considered and listened to, as I am very confident I am not the only member of our community or the only person who lives in this building to agree in saying this licence application should not, under any circumstance, be approved.

Dear sir/madam,

I'd like to oppose the last pub standing licence/music licence! I live at parmentergate court, NR1 1PF.

I'm sick and tired of listening to the ridiculously loud music where I'm not even next door to them! There's a bit of distance! Which music carry's as they play stupidly loud music in the garden! Just take a look on their socials where they actually boast about the crazy loud sound speakers!!!! They have zero respect for residents in the area! When walking to work I'm fed up dodging the sick piles!

They need to be held accountable!
