Report

1. The council's current corporate plan 2012-2015 sets out the overall strategic direction of the council including its vision and priorities. This guides everything the council will do for the city and its residents and visitors for the period. As such, the plan acts as the overarching policy framework for the council.
2. The corporate plan for the period 2015-2020 (attached as an appendix to this report) was approved at budget council on 17 February 2015 and was developed through a number of methods including:
 - a) Analysing information on levels of need in the city such as looking at demographics, strengths, opportunities, inequalities and challenges.
 - b) Assessing the current environment the council operates in, including the national and local economic climate and policy and legislation for local government.
 - c) Looking at the potential future factors that may impact on Norwich and the council e.g economic, social, environmental etc.
 - d) Discussions with councillors including an all councillor workshop.
 - e) Specific discussions with partner organisations
 - f) Assessing the future resourcing likely to be available to deliver a new corporate plan.
 - g) Formal review by scrutiny and cabinet.
3. On 26 January 2016 council approved the following changes to the corporate plan 2015-20 which have been incorporated :-
 - (a) under the heading A Safe, Clean and Low Carbon City, to add "including bio-diversity" to the sixth bullet point.
 - (b) under the heading A Prosperous and Vibrant City to include "and it's green heritage" within the third bullet point.
4. The budgets being considered later on the agenda of this meeting are being recommended to ensure the necessary resources are in place to deliver the corporate plan.
5. Although no changes to the corporate plan are being proposed at this time a review of the corporate plan will be required in within six months to consider the need to reflect any changes to central government financing such as New Homes Bonus and changes to housing finance within the Housing and Planning Bill.

Delivering the plan	26

Foreword by the leader

The vital role the city council plays in the life of the city is reflected in the new Corporate Plan that runs for the next five years. This will be against a background of reduced funding from central government – set to continue well into the new Parliament.

In the past five years, Norwich City Council has delivered significant efficiencies, cost reductions and improvements. This has provided a measure of financial stability to enable us to start implementing our revised corporate plan. In part this will be delivered directly by the council; in many areas our priorities will be achieved through working in partnership with others (some of who face financial pressures of their own) to deliver the very best we can for Norwich.

The city council has a civic leadership role and our elected councillors have a mandate and responsibility to represent and work on behalf of their communities for the broader interests of the city.

This corporate plan sets itself the ambition over the next five years to support:

- greater equality across the city so that everyone has a fair chance in life and greater influence for people in their communities
- a strong economy that provides secure employment and well paid work to make Norwich a Living Wage city.
- the availability of good quality training and skills programmes for young people.
- the provision across all housing tenures of access to affordable decent homes that are efficient to run

- communities in keeping safe and clean
- access to free and affordable cultural and leisure activities
- continued energy efficiency improvements to commercial and domestic buildings, the reduction of carbon dioxide emissions, and further improvements to our waste and recycling schemes
- people in accessing the services and information they need through changing technology

A strong, well-funded city council is crucial to the delivery of these objectives. We will continue to argue for a 'fair deal' for Norwich. Despite difficult times we will stay true to our values of equality, protecting the delivery of public services and investing the resources available to us in the city. These are a vital underpinning of a buoyant economy and a decent quality of life for all citizens of Norwich

I want us to be seen by our peers and other organisations across the country as a leading authority, a trusted partner and an organisation that is both outward looking and good to work with.

Alan Waters
Leader of Norwich
City Council

Norwich - facts and figures

Norwich has been a success story for almost 1,000 years. It is a modern city with a historic heart. It is vibrant and growing fast. Its economic, social, cultural and environmental influence is out of proportion to its size, and extends far beyond its boundary. Norwich's importance to the people of Norfolk and the wider region is clear.

But it is also a city that hides significant inequality. While it has many positive aspects, it also has many of the severe issues that urban city centres can experience, including poor educational attainment, poor health, and above average crime and antisocial behaviour, although this is reducing.

The council and the city

Norwich City Council is one of four councils that provide services to the city of Norwich, along with Broadland District Council, South Norfolk Council and Norfolk County Council.

The city council is responsible for approximately 60 per cent of the urban area of Norwich, including the historic city centre, covering a population of approximately 135,900 people (Source: 2013 midyear estimates, Office of National Statistics ONS).

Norwich is an innovative, creative city with big ambition for both the place and the people who live here. The fastest growing economy in the east of England, it is home to the headquarters of 50 major companies, is one of the top shopping destinations in the country, and is the regional cultural capital. Yet, in sharp contrast to this, outward economic prosperity, Norwich has a low-wage economy and high levels of deprivation.

Norwich's position as a regional centre means there are high levels of inward travel for work, shopping, cultural and leisure activities. This means that many of the services the city council provides are used by people who live outside of the city, placing additional pressures on council resourcing. However, this must be balanced against the range of benefits this high inward travel provides, including to the local economy and to the council financially through its share of business rates etc.

In the next section there is more detail on the economic, social, health, cultural and environmental picture of Norwich.

The social picture

- Levels of socio-economic deprivation are the third highest in the region and 70th (out of 326) in England (Source: Index of Multiple Deprivation 2010, Average of Scores)
- 25.2 per cent of housing is council rented, compared to only 5.7 per cent in Norfolk (Source: Census 2011, ONS)
- 88 per cent of school leavers staying on to further education, compared with 90 per cent across Norfolk (Source: Year 11 leavers activity data, Norfolk County Council, Norfolk Insight)
- 7.1 per cent of the working age population is claiming Incapacity Benefit or Severe Disablement Allowance (Source: May 2014, Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) and Norfolk Insight)
- Over the three years to 2014, overall crime reduced by 7.7 per cent (Source: Crime statistics, Norfolk Police)
- For the 12 months ending March 2014 there were 8,200 incidents of anti-social behaviour in Norwich, which was a year-on-year reduction of 7.5 per cent.
- 31.8 per cent of children in Norwich are affected by income deprivation which is the 30th highest percentage nationally. It is the highest percentage of any district council and the highest percentage in the eastern region (Source: Index of Multiple Deprivation 2010, IDACI)

The environmental picture

- Over the lifetime of our Carbon Management Programme, Norwich City Council reduced its carbon emissions by more than 24 per cent (non-weather corrected data) or 29 per cent (weather corrected data). (Source: Norwich City Council)
- University of East Anglia (UEA) and Norwich Research Park are internationally recognised for excellence in environmental, health and life sciences. (Source: UEA Climatic research unit)
- Norwich City Council has increased household recycling and composting to around 38 per cent and reduced residual waste per household. The dry recycling rate (i.e. paper, glass, metals and plastics) for Norwich city council stands at 27.5 per cent. (Sources: Norwich city council/ WasteDataFlow)

The economic picture

- 28 per cent of Norwich's adult population is qualified to degree level and above, higher than the national (27%) and Norfolk (22%) averages. (Census 2011)
- Around 128,000 people work in the Norwich urban area with 48,400 workers commuting to the city each day. (Sources: 2013 Business Register and Employment Survey and 2011 Census)
- 39 per cent of jobs in the county are based in the Norwich urban area. (Source: 2013 BRES)
- Norwich is ranked 13th in the UK as a retail centre and this sector accounts for 13 per cent of employment in the city. (Source: UK Retail footprint, CACI Venuescore)

The cultural picture

- Highest level of culture per capita in the UK. (Source: locallife.co.uk)
- Prime examples of architecture including Norwich 12, the UK's finest collection of heritage buildings in a medieval cityscape. (Source: Norwich Heart)
- Bid shortlisted for UK City of Culture 2013. (Source: UK City of Culture 2013)
- Major sporting facilities including football, athletics, Olympic swimming pool etc. (Source: Norwich City Council)
- Three regional media businesses (BBC, Anglia and Archant). (Source: Norwich City Council)
- High-profile arts calendar including the Norfolk and Norwich Festival, the largest festival in the country. (Source: Norwich City Council)
- Writers' Centre Norwich delivering world-class literary events. (Source: Norwich City Council)
- Norwich has been awarded UNESCO City of Literature status. The first city in England to achieve this. (Source: Norwich City Council)
- Highly regarded arts institutions including Norwich Castle Museum and Art Gallery, Norwich University College of the Arts and the Sainsbury Centre for Visual Arts. (Source: Norwich City Council)
- Five theatres, including the Theatre Royal – the most successful regional theatre in the UK. (Source: Norwich City Council)
- 75 formal play areas and 17 all-weather games areas. (Source: Norwich City Council)

The health picture

- The health picture overall for Norwich is mixed, though average life expectancy is close to the national average for men and slightly above the national average for women. (Source: Health Profiles 2014, Public Health England)
- But this masks differences within the city, for example men in the most deprived areas have an average life expectancy that is nine years shorter than in the least deprived areas. For women the difference is four years. (Source: LG Inform Plus/ Public Health England)
- Many key health measures are significantly worse in Norwich than in the rest of the county. (Source: Health Profiles 2014, Public Health England)
- Significant health issues with high levels of teenage pregnancy, mental health problems and drug and alcohol misuse. (Source: Health Profiles 2014, Public Health England)
- Low levels of malignant melanoma and diabetes. Fewer obese adults. (Source: Health Profiles 2014, Public Health England)
- Lower than average children's population, and higher proportions in the younger adult age ranges (16 to 24 and 25 to 39). (Source: 2013 mid-year population estimates, ONS)
- Lower than average road deaths and injuries. (Source: Health Profiles 2014, Public Health England).

Strategic direction of the council

The council's strategic direction sets out our overall vision, priorities and values for the next five years. This will guide everything we will do as an organisation and how we will go about it. The strategic direction is shown in the diagram on the next page and covers the following elements:

Our vision – overall this is what as a council we aim to achieve for the city and its citizens

Our mission – this is the fundamental purpose of the council – so basically what we are here for

Our priorities – these are the key things we aim to focus on achieving for the city and its residents to realise our vision over the next five years

Our core values – these drive how we will all work and act as teams and employees of the council.

Taken together these summarise what we promise to do and be as a council over the next five years for the city and its residents.

Our strategic direction has been developed through a number of methods including:

- a) Analysing information on levels of need in the city such as looking at demographics, strengths, opportunities, inequalities and challenges.
- b) Assessing the current environment the council operates in, including the national and local economic climate and policy and legislation for local government.

- c) Looking at the potential future factors that may impact on Norwich and the council eg economic, social, environmental etc.
- d) Discussions with councillors including an all councillor workshop.
- e) Specific discussions with partner organisations
- f) Consultation with citizens and organisations in the city.
- g) Assessing the future resourcing likely to be available to deliver a new corporate plan.

The council's 'blueprint' a separate document that can be found on our website at www.norwich.gov.uk and guides how we organise ourselves to deliver the priorities.

Council priorities

Our core values

Everything we ever do as an organisation, whether in teams or as individuals, will be done with our core values in mind. These are:

- P Pride. We will take pride in what we do and demonstrate integrity in how we do it.
- A Accountability. We will take responsibility, do what we say we will do and see things through.
- C Collaboration. We will work with others and help others to succeed.
- E Excellence. We will strive to do things well and look for ways to innovate and improve.

Our priority

A safe, clean and low carbon city

We want to ensure that Norwich is safe and clean for all citizens and visitors to enjoy and that we create a sustainable city where the needs of today can be met without compromising the ability of future citizens to meet their own needs.

To support this priority we will work with our citizens and partners to enable and deliver the following key actions over the next five years:

- To maintain street and area cleanliness.
- To provide efficient and effective waste collection services and reduce the amount of waste sent to landfill.
- To work effectively with the police to reduce anti-social behaviour, crime and the fear of crime.
- To protect residents and visitors by maintaining the standards of food safety.

- To maintain a safe and effective highway network in the city and continue to work towards 20mph zones in residential areas.
- To mitigate and reduce the impact of climate change wherever possible and protect and enhance the local environment including biodiversity.
- To reduce the council's own carbon emissions through a carbon management programme.

Our priority A prosperous and vibrant city

We want Norwich to be a prosperous and vibrant city in which businesses want to invest and where everyone has access to economic, leisure and cultural opportunities.

To support this priority we will work with our citizens and partners to enable and deliver the following key actions over the next five years:

- To support the development of the local economy and bring in inward investment through economic development and regeneration activities.
- To advocate for an effective digital infrastructure for the city.
- To maintain the historic character of the city and its green heritage through effective planning and conservation management.
- To provide effective cultural and leisure opportunities for people in the city and encourage visitors and tourists.

Our priority A fair city

We want Norwich to be a fair city where people are not socially, financially or digitally excluded and inequalities are reduced as much as possible.

To support this priority we will work with our citizens and partners to enable and deliver the following key actions over the next five years:

- To reduce financial and social inequalities
- To advocate for a living wage
- To encourage digital inclusion so local people can take advantage of digital opportunities
- To reduce fuel poverty through a programme of affordable warmth activities

Our priority A healthy city with good housing

We want to ensure that people in Norwich are healthy and have access to appropriate and good quality housing.

To support this priority we will work with our citizens and partners to enable and deliver the following key actions over the next five years:

- To deliver our annual Healthy Norwich action plan with our key partners to improve health and wellbeing.
- To support the provision of an appropriate housing stock including bringing long term empty homes back into use and building new affordable homes.
- To prevent people in the city from becoming homeless through providing advice and alternative housing options.

- To improve the council's own housing stock through a programme of upgrades and maintenance and provide a good service to tenants.
- To improve the standard of private housing in the city through advice, grants and enforcement and supporting people's ability to live independently in their own homes through provision of a home improvement agency.

The council is also committed to keeping the housing stock council owned and run and not to initiate a transfer process to a housing association. It is also committed to explore and, where possible in the future, take advantage of the ideas and opportunities suggested within the Lyons Housing Review.

Our priority Value for money services

The council is committed to ensuring the provision of efficient, effective and quality public services to residents and visitors. Whilst we will continue to face considerable savings targets over the next five years, we will continue to protect and improve those services our citizens value most as much as we possibly can.

To support this priority we will work with our citizens and partners to enable and deliver the following key actions over the next five years:

- To engage and work effectively with customers, communities and partner organisations, utilising data and intelligence and collaborative and preventative approaches to improve community outcomes.

- To continue to reshape the way the council works to realise our savings target and improving council performance wherever possible.
- To improve the efficiency of the council's customer access channels.
- To maximise council income through effective asset management, trading and collection activities.

Delivering the plan

This document sets out the overall strategic direction for the council in the 2015-20 period. This plan is underpinned by a range of strategic and operational plans, which set out in more detail how our vision and priorities will be delivered. These plans contain more specific targets, which are allocated to teams, contractors and employees to deliver.

Progress against targets is monitored and reviewed regularly through the council's performance management framework. This includes monthly performance reports to portfolio holders.

Overall progress on delivering the corporate plan is then formally reported quarterly to the council's cabinet and scrutiny committee. The council also publishes an annual performance review as part of its statement of the accounts. This can be found on the council's website at www.norwich.gov.uk.

This Corporate Plan 2015-20 sits alongside the council's budgets and Medium Term Financial Strategy. These documents ensure that resources are available for the delivery of the corporate plan.

The Corporate Plan 2015-20 also links closely to the council's risk management strategy and corporate risk register. The council has a comprehensive approach to risk management which ensures that all strategic risks are appropriately identified, managed and mitigated against.

The diagram on the next page summarises how our priorities, actions and performance targets are delivered through delivery plans, financial plans and agreed staff actions.
