I am a resident of Norwich City centre and recently had attended the 'Junkyard' street food, drink and music event.

Initially i had a couple of questions re the event as i live so near to the destination of the Junkyard event and once contacting the organisers with my questions i had a very prompt response and reassuring answers.

The event was vibrant, friendly, and just what the city needed.

To hear that there potentially could be a Christmas 'Junkyard' event definitely gets my support and i look forward to booking my visit.

Bring on the Merry Cheer.
