|--|--|
| Date of Hearing: | 17 September 2019 |
| Licence Type: | Application for a premises licence under the Licensing Act 2003 |
| Name of Applicant: | Mr Mehdi Mohebi |
| Name of Premises/Postal Address of Premises: | 5 Hall Road, Norwich, Norfolk NR1 3HQ |
| Licensing Sub-Committee: ("the Committee") | Councillors Stutely (Chair), Driver and Oliver |
| Other persons present: | Ms V. Conlon and Mr P. Etherington, both of Norfolk County Council Trading Standards, Ms M. Bartram of Norfolk Constabulary, Ms M Fuller, Licensing Department and Mr D. Lowens and Ms S. Moss, solicitors of nplaw (Norfolk County Council) and Mr Mehdi Mohebi |

There were no declarations of interest. Councillor Stutely mentioned he had been present at the committee dealing with these premises in January 2019.

The applicant Mr Mohebi had provided further documentation and Trading Standards had also provided papers in addition to those on the agenda which were sent to or distributed prior to the start of committee.

It was agreed to hold the hearing in private under Regulation 14 of the Hearing Regulations and the public was excluded. Ms Fuller presented the report to committee.

Mr Mohebi explained that he was representing himself and was aware that he could have been legally represented.

Mr Mohebi addressed committee.

Ms V Conlon from Trading Standards addressed committee.

Ms M Bartram of Norfolk Constabulary addressed the committee.

Committee invited all present whether they had any further questions to ask of any party and then considered the application in the absence of the applicant and those who had made representations.

DECISION OF COMMITTEE:

The committee refused the application.

RIGHTS OF APPEAL:

Rights of appeal are set out in Schedule 5 of the Licensing Act 2003. Any person wishing to appeal should do so by raising such an appeal in a magistrates' court within 21 days of the notification to them of the decision appealed against.
