APPLICATION OF THE RULE:

If no specific, intended victim, count one crime for each offender or group of offenders

Example 1: A group of people are found to be producing racially inflammatory leaflets.

One crime (class 66).

Affray. One crime for each incident of affray. Where crimes of violence against the person are connected with an affray, count the violence against the person offences but not the affray.

Example 1: Two people cause an affray in the course of which. (i) four people are assaulted.

Four crimes of assault (class 5D or 8N according to circumstances).

(ii) no-one is assaulted.

One crime of affray (class 66). Do not count any assault separately. The minor injuries in this case are not One crime of affray (class 66) bruising, swellings, reddening of the skin, superficial cuts, or a „black eye? during the commission of the affray considered to constitute a violence against the person offence

(Note: This applies only where the police come across the incident, or a third party reports it and there has been no separate allegation of assault. Where a 'call for service' has been received alleging an assault, the assault should be recorded, even if the other parties submit counter allegations. Account of Crime

Between the above times an unknown male has assaulted the IP by punching him to the head causing him to go unconscious and fall to the floor. On hitting the floor the IP has hit the back of his head causing a small cut. Unknown male has then left the scene towards Prince of Wales road with two other males. All parties involved in the incident had initially been in Cartel nightclub but it isn't believed that the incident started in this venue and instead occurred when all parties were outside the club after it had closed

I.C.I. Initial Report

Not believed to be covered by either council CCTV or Cartel CCTV. Possible CCTV of suspects running away from the scene from the bottom of London Street towards Prince of Wales road. Possibly CCTV at the T-junction on Rose Lane

Enquiries at the T-junction did not reveal any males matching the descriptions given by witnesses although 83 rooms were booked so possible that staff could not remember. Details of suspects entering _____ has come from witness _____ who saw both suspects entering the building.

Several witnesses were spoken to who have given several differing descriptions for potential suspects. The most reliable witness seems to be an _____ who followed the suspects down Prince of Wales road and saw them enter the T-junction on Rose lane. _____ states that she knew one of the males and names him as _____ but could give no further details other than a description of him and stated she knew his sister. _____ cannot be sure which of the two suspects she described threw the punch at the IP.

Nothing for CSI due to numerous people touching the IP once he had hit the floor. No clothing seized as at this time the IP does not wish to pursue a complaint and has signed PC 1733's PNB to this effect. No suspect's traced at this time so no forensic seizures from them. H2H not applicable due to location type and only other properties nearby are retail premises.

Once IP had woken up and been placed in the ambulance he started being difficult to deal with and gave his name and D.O.B. but refused to give an address or contact number. Instead a friend and witness had to give his instead and stated that he lived with the IP however the IP also inferred that he lived in London (NFD) (later obtained when IP was at hospital). IP initially refused treatment by medical staff and stated he did not wish to pursue a complaint and signed a PNB account to this effect. Believed that IP was concussed by the punch and had memory loss of the entire incident and couldn't remember being assaulted or who did it to him. IP was also fairly intoxicated although able to communicate clearly.

Due to no complaint and because of time of night/increment weather, no statements were taken from witnesses. IP was followed to hospital to make sure that injuries did not amount to a GBH. Since writing this crime report IP has now changed his mind and would like to pursue a complaint and wishes to see officers tomorrow (13th Sep) at Chapelfield where he is working as a charity worker. IP does not live locally and will only be available tomorrow before he leaves the county. Injuries confirmed at hospital as ABH injuries and have been treated by way of gluing cut. No further complications with the injury.

Due to issues with CIS, relationship between several witnesses and one of the suspects has had to be put down as acquaintance. This is NOT the case, please ignore. JF CDT _ CAD checked classification changed due to cut

Hi Brad,

Thank you for your swift reply,

Given your reply could I possibly suggest that the following times would be more appropriate:-

Furthermore we could offer the use of a 16GB memory stick if the use of disks is not efficient?

FYI, This is my letter to Kartel and in red the progress made so far, Brad has been sidetracked with the H&S issue and the original 1 month timescale was shorter than normal, so agreed an extension into January.

Spoke to Chris Gooding, he is still considering prosecution and or Improvement notice, explained your position and how things are supposed to be managed with them as lead authority. He is going to call and discuss.

DUTY TO TAKE GENERAL FIRE PRECAUTIONS

Failure

To take such general fire precautions as will ensure the safety of employees and relevant persons.

Legislation Applicable

Article 8 (1) (a) & (b) of the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 supported by Article 4, which determines what is meant by general fire precautions.

The responsible person must take such general fire precautions in relation to relevant persons who are not his employees and relevant persons.

General fire precautions in relation to premises means:-

- (a) Measures to reduce the risk of fire on the premises and the risk of the spread of fire on the premises;
- (b) Measures in relation to the means of escape from the premises;
- (c) Measures for securing that, at all material times, the means of escape can be safely and effectively used;
- (d) Measures in relation to the means for fighting fires on the premises;
- (e) Measures in relation to the means for detecting fire on the premises and giving warning in case of fire on the premises; and
- (f) Measures in relation to the arrangements for action to be taken in the event of fire on the premises, including-
 - (i) Measures relating to the instruction and training of employees; and
 - (ii) Measures to mitigate the effects of the fire.

The inspection revealed that;

Significant changes had been made to the venue without carrying out a fire risk assessment to establish the measures necessary to ensure the safety of customers and staff.

Suggested action to remedy failure

The requirements detailed in this schedule must be carried out to meet this article, in the mean time you must continue with the temporary management procedure in place and agreed with Norfolk Fire and Rescue Service. Provision of an additional door supervisor located on the smoking terrace when in use, to direct person safely via this route using a hand held torch, at busy times this is increased to two.

As agreed, could relax at this point but will keep in place as incentive to comply quickly.

FIRE RISK ASSESSMENT

Failure

The Fire Safety Risk Assessment has not taken into account a significant change.

Legislation Applicable

Article 9 (3) (b) of the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005

The responsible person must include any significant change in the fire risk assessment.

The inspection revealed that;

Significant changes had been made to the escape route from the first floor, resulting reduced height fencing which was not rigid enough, a single step, reduced emergency lighting and signage.

A temporary management procedure was in place where an additional door supervisor is located on the terrace when in use to direct person safely via this route using a hand held torch, at busy times this is increased to two.

Suggested action to remedy failure

The responsible person must ensure a full review of the fire risk assessment is carried out to identify the increased risks to which relevant persons are exposed, for the purpose of identifying the general fire precautions needed to comply with the requirements and prohibitions by or under this Order.

This must include an evaluation of the maximum occupancy figures for the venue and specifically the smoking terrace, detailing how the figures have been arrived at.

Risk assessment has been completed by Norfolk Fire Consultants Ltd, met on site twice but waiting for final documents, arranged a copy via email directly to me when completed.

I hold the last document completed for previous owner (September 2012) and Brad is working to that currently. FYI, 130 Max Occupancy.

FIRE SAFETY ARRANGEMENTS

Failure

A fire safety policy document has not been prepared.

Legislation Applicable

Article 11 (1) & (2) of the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005

In order to develop and maintain the safety of the building and that of employees and other relevant persons, the building management team should have formulated and documented a fire safety strategy. This strategy may include a fire safety manual in which technical specifications for all aspects of the workplace are included i.e. :-

- A fire safety policy statement appropriate to the building configuration, location, occupation and use. The fire safety policy statement should include general safety issues related to the use of the building and the aims and objectives of the proposed management system and its methodology.
- Fire safety specification for the premises including plans where appropriate.
- Safety management structure.
- Continuing controls and audit procedures.
- Actions to be taken in a fire emergency.
- Fire drills.
- Housekeeping.
- Planned maintenance procedures.
- Staff training.
- Security.
- Record keeping.

Suggested action to remedy failure

Record Keeping.

This is basically his management system and the vehicle to demonstrate due diligence, he has something in place but not very good. Risk assessor will provide a decent Log Book but I need to see it in use to be happy, hence time given to make some weekly entries etc.

FIRE FIGHTING AND FIRE DETECTION

Failure

The fire warning system is inadequate.

Legislation Applicable

Article 13 (1) (a) & 13 (2) of the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005.

A suitable fire warning system should be provided.

The inspection revealed that the break glass call point on the escape route from the smoking terrace had been removed and left on the floor, inside the fire door into the protected stairwell.

Suggested action to remedy failure

The break glass call point must be reinstated to a position adjacent to the fire door and if necessary clearly marked with appropriate signage.

All Done

EMERGENCY ROUTES AND EXITS

Failure

The escape routes and exits could not be used as quickly and as safely as possible

Legislation Applicable

Article 14 (2) (b) of the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005

In the event of a fire, it is important that persons can evacuate safely and as quickly as possible.

The inspection revealed that the escape route from the smoking terrace had been had not been fully reinstated post removal of the lobby into the stairwell. The following issues were noted:-

1. The escape route was sloped down to the exit door and incorporated two single steps.
2. The route was constructed of decking boards, the older sections had not been

- scrubbed clean and were slippery (new sections were slippery when damp).
3. The emergency lighting unit above the door had been removed (still live but tied up behind the door).
 4. The fencing had been replaced with a lower panel to one side and temporary rails, these were not securely fitted and may collapse allowing persons to fall onto the roof.
 5. Rubbish had been accumulated below the air conditioning unit.
 6. The hazard warning tape around the entrance into the first floor office and on the single steps was worn.
 7. The exit signage was unclear with the exit door flush to the building and lack of fencing to direct persons making their escape.

Suggested action to remedy failure

1. Single steps can easily cause trips and falls as the change in level will not be clearly visible to persons following the crowd when exiting. You should try and eliminate the step by using a ramped route not exceeding 1 in 12. (Statutory Guidance, Fire Safety in Small to Medium Places of Assembly, Page 67 refers. Available via Norfolk fire and rescue service web site). Where this cannot be fully achieved additional considerations must be made e.g. reduce occupancy likely to use the route.
2. The route must be kept clean and scrubbed to minimise the likelihood of boards becoming slippery. Additionally a non slip coating should be applied to the boards.
3. The ambient and emergency lighting must be improved to illuminate the full route and the door into the stairwell. Where single steps are unavoidable additional lighting and signage must be used to mitigate this hazard.
4. The fencing must be replaced with a more substantial installation capable of leading customers to the exit door and withstanding persons leaning against it etc.
5. Rubbish to be removed.
6. The hazard warning tape around the entrance into the first floor office and single steps must be replaced and ideally the area around the unoccupied office door filled in with a removable deck matching the main escape route.
7. The exit signage must be improved to clearly direct customers to the door into the stairwell, ideally the fencing will direct persons to the door without confusion.

All Done

MAINTENANCE

Failure

The manual fire-fighting equipment is inadequately maintained

Legislation Applicable

Article 17 (1) of the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005

Fire extinguishers must be properly maintained. In most cases it will be necessary to consult a competent service engineer. Keeping records of the maintenance carried out is important.

The inspection revealed that the equipment on site was out of date for service (annual).

All Done

Failure

The fire alarm system is inadequately maintained

The system covers the entire building and is serviced/Tested by letting agents

Legislation Applicable

Article 17 (1) of the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005

The fire alarm system must be maintained. Consideration should be given to initiating a servicing contract with a competent contractor who should maintain and test the system in accordance with British Standard 5839. The outcome of the service should be recorded.

The inspection revealed that whilst the fire alarm covers the entire building and was maintained by the landlord, it could not be established whether the call points and detectors within the club were being tested weekly.

Still not certain equipment in the club is being serviced as no records, he is going check and amend contract but hasn't yet (system has been tested and works)

Failure

The emergency lighting is inadequately maintained

Legislation Applicable

Article 17 (1) of the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005

The emergency lighting system must be maintained. All emergency escape lighting systems should be regularly tested and properly maintained to an appropriate standard.

It is recommended that consideration is given to the provision of a servicing contract with a competent contractor who should maintain and test the emergency lighting system in accordance with the recommendations of British Standard 5266. The outcome of the service should be recorded.

The inspection revealed that the building emergency lighting system was being maintained by the landlords but it could not be confirmed that the units within the venue were being checked.

Suggested action to remedy failure

The responsible person must ensure that the premises and any equipment provided in connection with fire-fighting, fire detection and warning, or emergency routes and exits are covered by a suitable system of maintenance, and are maintained by a competent person in an efficient state, in efficient working order and in good repair.

Units checked and tested plus additional units fitted, still want to see contract in place and some records to be sure he will keep it up.

TRAINING

Failure

Inadequate safety training is provided to enable the employees to safeguard themselves and other persons on the premises

Legislation Applicable

Article 21 (2) (a) of the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005

- (i) The responsible person must ensure that staff receive safety training to enable the employees to safeguard themselves and other persons on the premises.
- (ii) The responsible person must ensure that all staff receive basic fire safety induction training. The training should take account of the findings of the fire risk assessment and be easily understood by all those attending.

The inspection revealed that;

Records evidencing staff training post acquisition of the business by the current owner, were not available.

Suggested action to remedy failure

The responsible person must provide appropriate information, instruction and training to employees, during their normal working hours, about the fire precautions in the workplace, when they start working for the organisation, and from time to time throughout their employment.

Within this training you must ensure everyone is aware of the emergency plan and their role within it. This training must include door supervisors and bar staff.

Informed training has been booked with contractor for all staff, but cannot be completed until revised emergency plan drafted

Colleagues.

Please be aware of CR 58539/13 – a theft of a wallet from someone's jacket at KARTEL. This has today been closed as I have had not been able to contact the IP and he has not returned my calls or a letter sent 7 days ago.

I just wanted Licensing to be aware that Mr Baxter at KARTEL has despite numerous calls made no attempt to provide me with CCTV. This is evidenced on the crime investigation tabs.

Dear Mr Streeter,

The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005

With reference to – Licensing Act 2003 - summary review of a Premises Licence
Premises: Kartel, London House 68 London Street Norwich NR2 1JT

I am writing in respect of the above matter. I have been working with Mr Brad Baxter at the above premises since 15th November 2013, post concerns raised by the managing agents Arnolds Key. They were worried that the exit route from the smoking terrace had been significantly changed and the door into the first floor areas (not part of Kartel) had been left open allowing uncontrolled access to all parts of the building. On the 10th September 2013 I had been informed that Mr Baxter was in dispute with his neighbours regarding the legal right to use this exit, due to non-payment of bills by the previous owner (Mr Patrick Fisher). Mr Baxter stated that he had not been made aware of this arrangement during his purchase of the business. At this time I confirmed with Mr Brad Baxter that the exit remained unchanged and he was just dealing with legal issues. I reiterated that if at any time the exit route became unavailable or degraded he must revert to a maximum occupancy of 60 persons and review his risk assessment, additionally I required the right of way dispute to be resolved as a priority.

On the 15th of November 2013 I attended with Mr Robert Flint of Arnolds Keys and established that significant changes had been made to the smoking terrace exit, rendering it in my opinion unsuitable as an escape route. A second opinion was sought from our duty officer and we agreed to work with Mr Brad Baxter as he had recently taken over the business but informing him that a full premises audit would be carried out and that he should employ an additional SIA registered person as fire marshal on the smoking terrace. The additional person was to supervise the smoking area, assist in fire evacuation with a torch and keep customers away from the edge of the walkway. Fencing had been removed and people could easily fall onto the neighbour's roof. This was agreed as a short term control measure pending the result of my Audit and his reinstatement of the escape route as previously designed.

The full audit was carried out on the 19th November 2013 where I highlighted in addition to the escape route issues that the general fire safety management of the premises fell far below the standard expected, a notification of deficiencies detailing issues to be resolved was sent on the 2nd December 2013. Mr Baxter was very keen to comply and had made some improvements post my initial visit, as a result it was agreed that I would serve a lower level notification of deficiencies initially, allowing him the statutory 28 days to comply at which point if he has not complied higher level enforcement action would be considered. During this time he agreed to continue providing the additional supervision on the smoking terrace.

At my subsequent follow up visit not all issues had been complied with but the incident involving the roof collapse had occurred and I allowed an extension as Mr Baxter was then dealing with significant additional issues. He had employed a fire risk assessor and restored the escape route to an acceptable standard with minor exceptions. The general management of the venue had however not improved, I came to the conclusion that the venue was being managed reactively not proactively and explained to Mr Baxter that I am looking for systems which will ensure he anticipates and reacts to fire safety issues in a timely fashion. I explained that I felt, even if he had things generally ok at this point when I revisit next year they would have slipped again.

Mr Baxter has now employed a health and safety professional to help him create a fire safety management system; though this has again taken considerable time and currently I have copies of blank documents only. I have a revisit booked for Thursday 27th February 2014 to go through the system with Mr Baxter and check if he is following this professional advice and can demonstrate adequate control of the premises. Until this requirement has been met I require the continued presence of the additional SIA registered person to manage the smoking area as agreed with Norfolk Constabulary.

During this period Mr Baxter has been talking about taking over the entire building and creating a new bar, I have advised him that the building has only one exit route and the fire service would challenge any proposed increase in occupancy for the building as a result. His fire risk assessor has submitted a revised assessment allowing increased numbers for the existing venue with some improvements, these are disputed by me and I have informed Mr Baxter that no increase will be sanctioned at this point. The revised calculations and current operation of the club are currently being reviewed by my line manager and technical fire safety manager to establish how many persons they are prepared to sanction.

Summary

Mr Baxter has made improvements to the physical issues within the club though this took longer than expected, allowance was made as a result of the roof collapse but progress remained slow and he needed prompting from time to time. The management of the premises is still not at an acceptable level and as a result additional supervision is required on the smoking terrace. Taking into account the roof incident even when the additional fire marshal is no longer required, I am of the opinion that one door supervisor must always be on the smoking terrace to manage this area and manage an evacuation.

Should you require any further assistance please do not hesitate to contact me on the number shown above.

Yours faithfully

For Chief Officer

INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This guidance explains how to use the provisions in the Licensing Act 2003 ("the 2003 Act"), inserted by section 21 of the Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006, which allow a quick process for attaching interim conditions to a licence and a fast track licence review when the police consider that the premises concerned is associated with serious crime or serious disorder (or both).
- 1.2 This guidance has no statutory basis but is intended to assist police forces and licensing authorities when considering using the procedures.
- 1.3 The powers are set out in sections 53A to 53C of the 2003 Act and apply only where a premises licence authorises the sale of alcohol. They do not apply in respect of other premises licences, or to premises operating under a club premises certificate. The purpose of these powers is to complement existing procedures in the 2003 Act for tackling crime and disorder associated with licensed premises. Existing powers in Part 8 of the 2003 Act provide for the instant closure of premises by the police in some circumstances (in essence, disorder or nuisance) and the consequent review of premises licences by the licensing authority. The powers under sections 53A to 53C, which are in Part 3 of the 2003 Act, are aimed at tackling serious crime and serious disorder, in particular (but not exclusively) the use of guns and knives.
- 1.4 The powers allow:
 - the police to trigger a fast track process to review a premises licence where the police consider that the premises are associated with serious crime or serious disorder (or both); and
 - the licensing authority to respond by taking interim steps quickly, where appropriate, pending a full review.
- 1.5 In summary, the process is:
 - the chief officer of police for the area in which the premises are situated may apply to the licensing authority for an expedited review of a premises licence where a senior police officer has issued a certificate stating that in his/her opinion the premises are associated with serious crime or serious disorder (or both);
 - on receipt of the application and the certificate, the licensing authority must within 48 hours of the time of its receipt consider whether it is necessary to take interim steps pending determination of the review of the premises licence – the authority must in any event undertake a review within 28 days after the day of receipt of the application.
- 1.6 The options open to the licensing authority at the interim steps stage include:
 - modification of the conditions of the premises licence;
 - the exclusion of the sale of alcohol by retail from the scope of the licence;
 - removal of the designated premises supervisor from the licence; and

- suspension of the licence.

1.7 Following the full licence review, the licensing authority may do any of the above or may revoke the licence.

1.8 The purpose of this guidance is to:

- set out the circumstances where the power can be used; and
- outline the process and the steps at each stage.

THE STEPS

2. Triggering the expedited review

2.1 Section 53A of the Licensing Act 2003 sets out who may apply for an expedited review and the circumstances in which it can be used.

Application for expedited review

2.2 The chief officer of police for the area in which the premises are situated may apply to the relevant licensing authority for an expedited licence review if a senior member of the force has issued a certificate that in his/her opinion a licensed premises is associated with serious crime or serious disorder (or both).

2.3 The key definitions used above are:

- Senior member of the force: This must be an officer of the rank of superintendent or above.
- Certificate: This is a formal note which identifies the licensed premises and includes a signed statement by a senior officer that he believes the premises is associated with serious crime, serious disorder or both. This form is not prescribed in legislation. However, a sample form which forces may wish to adopt is attached at annex A to this guidance.
- Serious crime: The tests to determine the kinds of conduct that amount to serious crime are set out in section 81(2) and (3) (a) and (b) of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000. Those tests are that the conduct:
 - (a) constitutes an offence for which a person who is 21 years of age or over with no previous convictions could reasonably be expected to be sentenced to imprisonment for 3 years or more; and
 - (b) involves the use of violence, results in substantial financial gain or is conduct by a large number of persons in pursuit of a common purpose.
- Serious disorder: There is no definitive list of behaviours that constitute serious disorder, and the matter is one for judgment by the local police. The phrase should be given its plain, ordinary meaning; as is the case under section 12 of the Public Order Act 1986 in which it is also used.
- The application for a summary or expedited review: this is an application made by, or on behalf of, the Chief Officer of Police under section 53A of the 2003 Act. The application must be made in the form which is set out in Schedule 8A to the Licensing Act 2003 (Premises licences and club premises certificates) Regulations 2005 (SI 2005/42). The completed application must be accompanied by the certificate issued by a senior officer. The form which must be used is reproduced in annex B of this guidance.

2.4 In deciding whether to sign a certificate, the senior officer will want to consider the following (as applicable):

- The track record of the licensed premises concerned and whether the police have previously had cause to give advice about serious criminal or disorderly conduct (or the likelihood of such conduct) attributable to activities taking place on the premises – It is not expected that this power will be used as a first response to a problem.
- The nature of the likely crime and/or disorder – is the potential incident sufficiently serious to warrant using this power?
- Should an alternative power be deployed? Is the incident sufficiently serious to warrant use of the powers in sections 161 to 165 of the 2003 Act to close the premises? Or could the police trigger a standard licence review to address the problem? Alternatively, could expedited reviews be used in conjunction with other powers (for example, modifying licence conditions following the use of a closure power).
- What added value will use of the expedited process bring? How would any interim steps that the licensing authority might take effectively address the problem?

2.5 It is recommended that these points are addressed in the chief officer's application to the licensing authority. In particular, it is important to explain why other powers or actions are not considered to be appropriate. It is up to the police to decide whether to include this information in the certificate or in section 4 of the application for summary review. The police will also have an opportunity later to make representations in relation to the full review.

2.6 In triggering the process, the police will wish to take into account the fact that an intended use of the power is to tackle the use of dangerous weapons and the violence they fuel. For example, in appropriate circumstances the police might want to make representations to the licensing authority suggesting that they modify the conditions of the premises licence to require searches of customers for offensive weapons upon entry. Under the powers in sections 53A to 53C, this could be done on an interim basis pending a full hearing of the issues within the prescribed 28-day timeframe.

2.7 Similarly, the power could, where appropriate, be used to reduce the risk of injury caused by glass by requiring the adoption of a safer alternative (but see paragraphs 3.6 and 3.7 below).

2.8 However, it should continue to be borne in mind that these are selective measures. It is not the aim to require all licensed premises to undertake these searches or use toughened glass. Rather, the policy aim is to provide a selective tool, to be used proportionately, to limit this condition to those pubs that are at risk either because police intelligence shows there is a risk of knives/guns being carried or because crime and disorder has occurred on the premises.

3. The Licensing Authority and the interim steps

3.1 Within 48 hours of receipt of the chief officer's application, the licensing authority must give the premises licence holder and responsible authorities a copy of the application for review and a copy of the certificate, and must also consider whether it is necessary to take interim steps. When calculating the 48 hour period any non-working day can be disregarded.¹

3.2 The licensing authority may want to consult the police about the steps that it thinks are appropriate, pending the determination of the review, to address the immediate problems with the premises, in particular the likelihood of serious crime and/or serious disorder. The licensing authority may consider the interim steps without the holder of the premises licence having been given an opportunity to make representations. This does not, of course, mean that the licensing authority cannot afford such an opportunity if it thinks it appropriate and feasible to do so in all the circumstances.

3.3 The determination of interim steps is not a matter that may be delegated to an officer of the licensing authority. The relevant decisions are likely to be taken by a licensing sub-committee. It should also be noted that there is no requirement for a formal hearing in order to take interim steps. This means that the relevant sub committee members can communicate by telephone or other remote means in order to reach a decision. A written record should always be produced as soon as possible after a decision is reached.

3.4 The interim steps that the licensing authority must consider taking are:

- the modification of the conditions of the premises licence;
- the exclusion of the sale of alcohol by retail from the scope of the licence;
- the removal of the designated premises supervisor from the licence; and
- the suspension of the licence.

Modification of the conditions of the premises licence can include the alteration or modification of existing conditions or addition of any new conditions, including those that restrict the times at which licensable activities authorised by the licence can take place. Further examples of possible licensing conditions, including those aimed at tackling crime and disorder, can be found in the amended guidance issued under section 182 of the 2003 Act (available at:

www.homeoffice.gov.uk/publications/alcohol-drugs/alcohol/guidance-section-182-licensing).

3.5 If the licensing authority decides to take steps at the interim stage:

¹ This means that, for example, if the application was received at 3pm on a Friday, the 48 hour period would cover the remaining 9 hours on that Friday and the remaining 39 hours starting on the Monday morning (provided it was not a bank holiday). In this case the licensing authority would have to decide on interim steps by 3pm on the Tuesday.

- the decision takes effect immediately, or as soon after it as the licensing authority directs; but
- the licensing authority must give immediate notice of its decision and its reasons for doing so to the holder of the premises licence and the chief officer of police who made the application. The 2003 Act does not specify that the immediate notice has to be in writing. However, in an individual case the licensing authority may consider that the need for immediate communication at least initially requires a non-written approach, such as a telephone call. This may happen when, for example, the authority decides that the decision should have immediate effect. In such a case, the decision and the reasons for it should be explained clearly and in full to the licence-holder (or someone who may properly act for the licence-holder), and the call followed up as soon as possible with a written version of the decision and the reasons (for example, by email or fax) which is identical to, or not significantly different from, the version given by telephone.

3.6 The licensing authority, in deciding when its decision on interim steps should take effect, should consider the practical implications of compliance in relation to the premises. For example to comply with a modification of the conditions of a licence that requires employment of door supervisors, those running the premises may need some time to recruit appropriately qualified and accredited staff.

3.7 In addition, very careful consideration needs to be given to interim steps which would require significant cost or permanent or semi-permanent adjustments to premises which would be difficult to remove if the outcome of the subsequent full review was to withdraw or modify those steps. For example, making structural changes, installing additional CCTV or replacing all glassware with safer alternatives may be valid steps, but might be disproportionate if they are not likely to be deemed necessary following the full review (or any subsequent appeal). The focus for interim steps should be on the immediate measures that are necessary to prevent serious crime or serious disorder occurring. In some circumstances, it might be better to seek suspension of the licence pending the full review, rather than imposing a range of costly conditions or permanent adjustments.

4. Making representations against the interim steps

4.1 The premises licence holder may make representations against the interim steps taken by the licensing authority. There is no time limit for the premises licence holder to make representations on the interim steps, although in practice this would at some point be superseded by the full review which would have to be completed within 28 days of the application being received by the licensing authority. On receipt of such representations, the licensing authority must (if the representations are not withdrawn) hold a hearing within 48 hours of their receipt. When calculating the 48 hour period, any non-working day can be disregarded.

4.2 The licensing authority must give advance notice of the hearing to the premises licence holder and the chief officer of police. Given that these measures are designed to deal with serious crime and serious disorder on an interim basis only, the process is designed to avoid delay and, as such, significant portions of the Licensing Act 2003 (Hearings) Regulations 2005 (SI 2005/44) (which set out the usual processes governing the conduct of licensing authority hearings) do not apply in order to streamline the hearing process. One result of this is that licensing authority cannot adjourn the hearing to a later date if the licence holder fails to attend at the scheduled time, as is the case under the normal review procedure. And as is the case with that procedure, the licence holder does not have to be present for the hearing to take place. In addition, there is no timescale for notifying the licence holder of the hearing under the modified process, providing the notification takes place before the hearing is held. However, it is imperative that the licence holder be given as much notice as is possible in the circumstances to afford the holder a maximum practicable opportunity to prepare for and attend the hearing. Licensing authorities should bear in mind that the usual principles of public law decision-making will apply to interim determinations, in a form that has regard to the statutory context of an expedited process.

4.3 At the hearing the licensing authority must:

- consider whether the interim steps are appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives; and
- determine whether to withdraw or modify the steps taken.

4.4 When considering the case the licensing authority must take into account:

- the senior officer's certificate that accompanied the application;
- the chief officer's representations (if any); and
- any representations made by the premises licence holder.

4.5 There is no right of appeal to a magistrates' court against the licensing authority's decision at this stage.

5. The review of the premises licence

5.1 The licensing authority must hold a review of the premises licence within 28 days after the day of receipt of the chief officer's application. This must take place even if the chief officer asks to withdraw his application or representations. At the hearing, the licensing authority must:

- consider what steps it considers appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives; and
- decide which interim steps (if there are any) cease to have effect altogether or become the subject of any steps which it considers are appropriate when making its determination on the review.

5.2 The steps the licensing authority can take are:

- the modification of the conditions of the premises licence;
- the exclusion of a licensable activity from the scope of the licence;
- the removal of the designated premises supervisor from the licence;
- the suspension of the licence for a period not exceeding 3 months; and
- the revocation of the licence.

Modification of the conditions of the premises licence can include the alteration or modification of existing conditions or addition of any new conditions, including those that restrict the times at which licensable activities authorised by the licence can take place. Further examples of possible licensing conditions, including those aimed at tackling crime and disorder, can be found in the amended guidance under section 182 of the 2003 Act.

5.3 The licensing authority must:

- advertise the review inviting representations from any persons for no less than seven consecutive days, by notice as described in regulation 38 of the Licensing Act 2003 (Premises licences and club premises certificates) Regulations 2005 (SI 2005/42) and, if applicable, on the licensing authority's website (see regulation 38(1)(b) of the above). The relevant notices should be published on the day after the day of receipt of the chief officer's application.
- advertise that any representations made by the premises licence holder, responsible authority and any other persons should be submitted to the licensing authority within 10 working days of the advertisement of the review appearing.
- give formal notice of the hearing no later than five working days before the day or first day on which the hearing is to be held to the premises licence holder and to every responsible authority².

5.4 A party shall give to the authority a notice no later than two working days before the day or the first day on which the hearing is to be held stating –

- whether he intends to attend or be represented at the hearing;
- whether he considers a hearing to be unnecessary.
- whether he would like permission for any other person (other than the person he intends to represent him at the hearing) to appear at the hearing and, if so, explain on which points that person will be able to contribute.

5.5 The regulations relating to hearings are set out in the Licensing Act 2003 (Hearings) Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/44). They apply to final hearings under the section 53A(2)(b) in a similar way to hearings following closure orders under section 167 of the 2003 Act (it should be emphasised that the truncated version of the hearings regulations described in paragraph 4.2 above applies to interim hearings only). The issues they address include who can make representations and what those representations can be about. It is therefore possible for responsible authorities or any other persons to make representations in relation to any of the licensing objectives, not just crime and disorder. Similarly, where it is in the public interest, the regulations relating to the exclusion of individuals from hearings, or conducting the hearing in private, will apply.

5.6 The licensing authority must take into account any relevant representations made. Relevant representations are those that:

² Responsible authorities are defined under sections 13(4) and 69(4) of the 2003 Act.

- relate to one or more of the licensing objectives;
- have not been withdrawn; and
- are made by the premises licence holder, a responsible authority or any other person (who is not also a responsible authority).

5.7 The licensing authority must notify its decision and the reasons for making it to:

- the holder of the premises licence;
- any person who made relevant representations; and
- the chief officer of police who made the original application.

6. Right of Appeal

6.1 An appeal may be made to the magistrates' court within 21 days of the licence holder being notified of the licensing authority's determination on the review. An appeal may be made by the premises licence holder, the chief officer of police and/or any other person who made relevant representations.

6.2 The decision of the licensing authority, following the review hearing, will not have effect until the end of the period allowed for appeal, or until the disposal of the appeal.
