

NOTICE

Local Government (Executive Arrangements) (Meetings and Access to Information) (England) Regulations 2012.

Cabinet meeting – 28 June 2016 (to follow meeting of full council which commences at 19:30)

In addition to the items published on the notice dated 15 June 2016, the additional matters listed below will be considered at the above meeting of cabinet, to be held at City Hall, Norwich.

As required under the above regulations, the chair of the scrutiny committee has been informed that the items will be added to the agenda for the following reason that the government deadline for a decision is 4 July 2016:

	Matter	Purpose	Key decision?	Public to be excluded?
1	The devolution of powers and resources to East Anglia	To consider Norfolk and Suffolk's ambition for and approach to devolution based on the East Anglia Devolution Deal announced by the Chancellor in the Budget on 16 March 2016 and the Government commitment to enhance local autonomy through devolution, reflected in the Cities and Local Government Devolution Act. To consider the progress made in the Devolution proposal by the sixteen local authorities in the Norfolk and Suffolk area and details the process for the next stages in the devolution programme and the latest elements of the devolution proposal To consider the approach for moving to the next stages of the devolution process.	YES	NO

A 'key decision' means a decision which is likely to either:-

- (a) result in the council incurring expenditure which is, or making savings which are, significant in relation to the council's total budget for the service or function to which the decision relates (for these purposes the presumption is that "significant" means any sum exceeding whichever is greater of the thresholds established by the European public contracts directive 2004/18/EC for local government in respect of contracts for supplies or services), or;
- (b) be significant in terms of its effects on communities living or working in an area comprising two or more wards or electoral divisions in the Norwich city area.
